In his spare time, he liked to go camping at the beach where he enjoyed fishing and people watching. He also liked woodworking and carpentry around his house. He was a jokester and you never knew what was going to come out of his mouth next. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother and friend who will be missed by all who knew him.

John Hare posted:

Lord how time flies! Mr Joseph knew me before I knew him, see he lived next door to us on River Road. My memories are old but I remember going camping with Roy and Miss Margaret when I was a little fella. So many memories, many wonderful memories. As a young man he encouraged me to go into the military and I did, and retired after 24+ years. When I came home to visit I would visit Roy he usually at the Salisbury all having coffee with his buddies but sometimes at home. I had much respect for Roy especially as a Combat Wounded Veteran. I would like to get a few pictures if anyone could help me with that. John Hare 256.612.4014.God bless.
