Mom was a great influence on my life. She was always a second mom to me. I will always treasure all my memories of her. I tell my little boys how great a woman she was. I remember so many great moments with her. I remember how she took me in when my own mom threw me out. She was a great woman and she will be deeply missed.

What can I say? That woman left one hell of an impression on people...lol. I love her like she's a mom to me. I'm still not quiet sure if this is real... I don't want it to be... R.I.P. Mom! Gone but never forgotten!
