My thoughts and prayers go out to Jim's family. We had some great times and created a lot of good memories while working together at Cumberland Design. Jim was a hard worker and all around great guy. Short temper and Cowboys were his worst faults, but these were over shadowed by the goodness in his heart. He will be missed!

So very sorry to hear of Jim's passing. I was his cousin and my husband Ed went to school with him. I remember going to his family home as a child growing up and we always had a good time. Thoughts and prayers for his fiancé, her children and his family at this sad time.
