Carmella, you were brave, smart, funny and kind. You always talked about how much you loved your children. I am honored to have called you my friend, even though you made fun of my driving. I will never forget you and all the times you made me laugh. My deepest condolences and prayers are with the family, especially her children.

I knew Carmella from the time she was maybe 13 or so. I worked with Linda at NMH and then later with Carmella, first when she was a nursing student at NMH, and then later at Genesis. She was a good nurse and friend and I will miss her. I had kept in touch with her throughout all of her troubles and I know she was in a lot of emotional pain, but she had high hopes for recovery. I know she is at peace now, but this loss is a great one. Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers.
