To everyone in the Holt family, I send my sincere condolences for your loss. Jimmy was a childhood friend from Kent Village. I still can see him driving that big red tracker cutting the grass for the Apartments. Those are good memories that I will keep in my heart. May Jimmy rest in peace. Heidi (Fuchs) Brotherton

Diane, Katie, Little Jimmy, Vickie, Davis, Todd and Nathan, Ricky and I are thinking about you all and praying for comfort during the days to come. Jimmy was "One of a Kind", one of my oldest cousins and I will always remember his smile and laughter. He loved life and his family, he lived "big" and one of the only men I personally knew who achieved "hero" status (if only to Diane)...What a privilege to call Jimmy my cousin and friend!
