When you came to Georgia, you had married my Brother, Pat. I had never had a Sister and you told me right off, that I was your Little Sister. We had so many fun times and some sad ones too. My Mother Loved you and you her. You took up for my Children and they both Loved you so much. My Angie has been gone to Heaven for five months, I know it will be a great reunion with Mother, you always called her Mother. Bill and you always were friends, my Daddy, Mike and most of all Angie will welcome you with open arms. I Love you and hope to see you again someday.
