Robert Thomas Cora

OCT 24, 1940 - JUN 3, 2024

Robert Thomas Cora was born to Mary L. Cora on October 24, 1940, in Baltimore, Maryland. He left this life on June 3, 2024, in Seaford, Delaware where he made his residence.

Bob was raised by his grandparents, John and Dora Cora. He had aunts and uncles that also shaped the man he became, especially his Aunt Doris Cora. Bob had one brother, Richard Pindell, who preceded him in death. He is survived by his wife, Lorraine “Rainie”, his children: Robert Coburn, Michele Willet, Danny (Kim) and Bobby Davis, Kim Mullens, Melanie (Kevin) Reynolds and Pamela (Gene) Wheeler, 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Bob (aka Daddy, Pop, Pop Pop or Mr. Bob) was loved by many, his faithful, loyal friends became his chosen family. Special acknowledgment goes to Dena and Josh Rayne, who went above and beyond for many years. They provided love, care, meals, prayers, so much more than they could ever be thanked. Once you got through his tough exterior, you would discover his heart of gold and a devoted friend.

Bob wore many hats in his life, but his hard hat was issued by Bethlehem Steel at Sparrows Point. He retired after more than 30 years of service as a Millwright. He loved cars, fishing, collecting, and wheeling-and-dealing. Bob was well known at Wilson’s Auction and for having a vast inventory of doors and windows.

A funeral service will be held on Tuesday, June 11, 2024, at 7:00 PM at Watson-Yates Funeral Home, a Parsell Family Funeral Home, Seaford, DE, where family and friends may call beginning at 6:00 PM. Interment will follow the next day at 11:30 AM at Meadowridge Memorial Park, 7250 Washington Blvd, Elkridge, MD 21075.

In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to his Hospice care provider: Amedisys Foundation, 3854 American Way Suite A, Baton Rouge LA 70816.

I remember one year I went down to Cist my uncle bob with my grandfather (his brother). It was a wonderful trip. Uncle bob and grandpa thought it would be funny to play a joke on me and they put nuts and bolts into a bag from the Texas Roadhouse and told me they were peanuts. I later found out they were not the kind of nuts I could eat lol. They thought they were so funny. I am going to miss my uncle bob so much.
